

CE5221 Term Project

Project Objective: To determine the Level of Service of an existing signalised intersection in China for automobiles and pedestrians.

Input data

- 3 hours of video data are provided through this NUS Shared Point link:

Intersection Video and Instruction

- Code of practice on dimensions of key intersection

What to do

- You are free to use whatever tools (AI analytics tools, manual counting, open-source codes) to aid in the determination of the LOS for automobiles and pedestrians.
- You can work with your classmates, but all shared roles must be declared.

CE5221 Term Project

Submit a full individual report by 13 Nov 2026 @ 2359 hrs.

The report should contain:

- Site Description and Study Approach
- Input Data Collection, Treatment and Analytics Methods
- Computation for LOS for automobiles and pedestrians
- Declaration of Roles and Responsibilities with Classmates

The report should be no more than 20 pages in reasonable font sizes (minimum font size 11); excluding tables and figures and excluding appendices. Please be concise.

Submission to be made in softcopy via Canvas.

CE5221 Term Project

Submit a full individual video presentation (via recording) by 13 Nov 2026 @ 2359 hrs.

The video should contain:

- Site Description and Study Approach
- Input Data Collection, Treatment and Analytics Methods
- Computation for LOS for automobiles and pedestrians
- Declaration of Roles and Responsibilities with Classmates

The video presentation recording should be less than 5 minutes. Please be concise.

Submission to be made in softcopy via Canvas.

CE5221 Term Project

Assessment component	Percentage to term project report grade
Treatment of input data in technical report	20%
LOS computations for automobiles and pedestrians in technical report	40%
Grammar and presentation of technical report	10%
Video recording presentation materials quality	15%
Video recording presentation technique and approach	15%

You are allowed to share data for the term project with your classmates. However, you are not allowed to copy or plagiarize the report from your classmates. NUS has a very strict plagiarism policy and plagiarism will not be condoned.